2 Stuck in the Middle with You

The definition of duct tape is a polyethylene, reinforced, multi-purpose pressure sensitive tape with a soft and flexible shell and pressure sensitive adhesive. So pretty much it's something that keeps things together. We as the students of Highland High School keep this school together. In our busy lives many things change, whether it would be friends, teachers, girlfriends, or boyfriends; but no matter what, we are always stuck together. These friendships stick together throughout high school as if duct tape has been forged between them as bonds. We are different people that come from different backgrounds but we are again stuck. We all play different sports, whether it is football or cheerleading, but in the end, we all play for Highland. No matter where life takes us, or where we end up in the world, we will always be Stuck in 2011 forever.

Summer Fun

Hot Fun in the Summer Sun

"There's 104 days of Summer vacation
And school comes along just to end it;
So the annual problem for our generation
Is finding a good way to spend it."

- Phineas and Ferb, Disney Channel

There are generally about 10 weeks of Summer vacation, and being able to spend it is never an issue for Highland High School students. Summer means late nights out, long days at the beach, swimming pools, hanging with friends, going to games, and, above all, creating meaningful, everlasting memories.

For most, Summer is that "special" treat students spend the countless days and hours anticipating, and when it comes, it leaves you smiling from ear to ear. Summertime is one of the best times of the year.

Expedition America

Students visit Badlands

Sixteen seniors from Highland High School embarked on a "once in a lifetime experience" last summer. The students were divided into two groups, Team Alpha and Team Epsilon. Both groups roamed the Badlands, climbed Harney's Peak, hiked rigorous trails, saw national landmarks such as Crazy Horse and Mount Rushmore, and they visited so many more exciting places in their journey.

Guided by Mr. Blumenthal, these hand-picked students learned valuable survival skills as they surveyed places that were so much more fantastic than northwest Indiana. Undoubtedly, the memories of their travels will last forever.

Couples and Friends

Friends 'Til the End

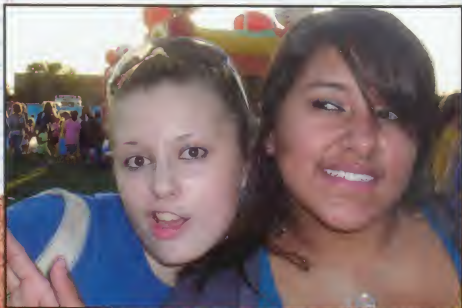

Life can be a bit hard at times. It would be even harder if we didn't have any friends to help us with our troubles. When something goes wrong, you turn to your closest friends, or that special someone.

So just remember that no matter how hard life may seem, you can get through anything with good friends there to help.

Back in the Day

Crayons, cartoons,
and nap time = perfect day

"Back in the days when I was young -- I'm not a kid anymore -- but sometimes I sit and wish I was a kid again."

-- Ahmad A. Lewis, songwriter, "Back in the Day"

Our high school lives are entirely different than when we were small, and but a child. Nowadays, we are told to "grow up" or "act our age" or to "quit acting like a child." It's true, of course, that because of our age or grade level, we are at the doorstep to a world that is full of possibilities and dreams. But while we chase these dreams, it's always warming to think back to a time when life was so simple and easy and fun.

Homecoming Dance

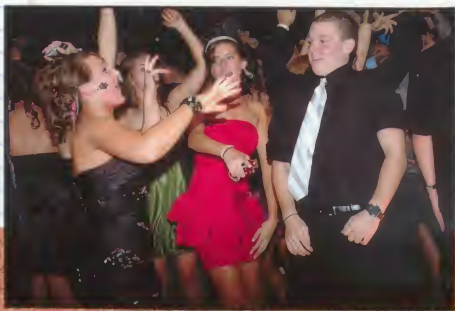

Creating Memories

Every year Homecoming Spirit Week is an important part of being a student at Highland High School. Many students enjoy the excitement of participating in the week's activities which include attending the parade and going to the game. Then, of course, the Homecoming Dance provides a perfect way to end the week. Couples dance and school friends meet and talk and they plan some get-together afterward. Typically, the event creates an impression that is never forgotten.

Turnabout

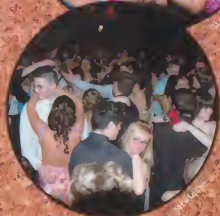

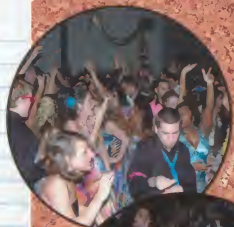

Sweet night for Students

Students who attended the Turnabout dance on Friday, Jan. 14 were given a deliciously sweet treat. With decorations that captured the essence of the "Candyland" theme, students had a spectacular time despite the frosty, cold temperatures outside.

Students spent much of the night dancing away the stress after the conclusion of final exams earlier in the day.

Ben Carpenter and Brooke Fowler, respectively, were named King and Queen of the dance.

By Lauren Pleasant

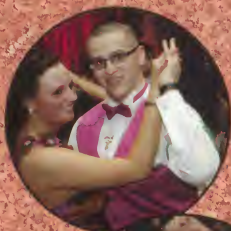

Jessica Sinclair, Selena Gregory, and Emonnie Lott have a blast at the "Candyland" themed Turnabout.

Prom

Stars Under the Orient

Students gathered at St. Helen of Constantine in Merrillville, braving unseasonably cold and rainy conditions for Highland High School's annual Prom event. Temperatures settled into mid-40's, and with heavy rains and gusting winds, it made Saturday, May 14 a rather miserable day. Still, nothing could have dampened the spirits of those students who participated in the event. It was a big night, too, for juniors Adam Pindrock and Paige Jones who were crowned King and Queen, respectively, at the "Stars Under the Orient"-themed extravaganza.

By Lauren Pleasant

Prom gave students the opportunity to let loose and enjoy themselves, much like juniors Kylie Hirschak and Connor Moynihan.

18 Stuck in the Middle with You

The setting was wonderful for Prom, as students packed the dance floor at St. Helen of Constantine in Merrillville.

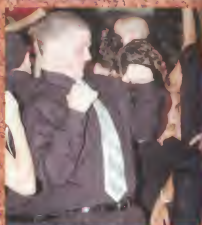

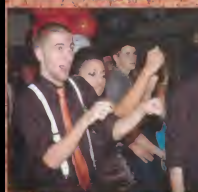

Juniors Paige Jones and Adam Pindrock share a moment on the dance floor after being crowned Prom Queen and King, respectively.

Junior Sarah Markusic and Hannah Louis enjoy the Prom festivities.

It seemed that nothing could deter the enthusiasm of students at this year's Prom. As soon as the music played, students rushed the dance floor where they spent much of their time at Highland High School's annual event.

Singing Their Heart Out

With the 2011 school year coming to an end, Highland's choirs proved they put a lot of hard work into each performance. Each choir member was given the opportunity to participate in ISSMA District, and some members were lucky enough to achieve a Gold at State. Along with Highland's Advanced Theatre class, Varsity Choir filled their guests with food and entertainment at the Madrigal Feast in December. The members of "Octette" also showed their talents by traveling as a group to sing for many activities in the town. Beginning Choir and Advanced Girls' Choir showed their talents by having successful performances that were given at each choir concert. Overall, under the instruction of Mr. David Markley, each choir member was able to show their full potential.

Advanced Girls' Choir members Destinee Reyes and Alayna Kaim spread their "wings" after a performance.

Playing Their Heart Out

Being in orchestra is more than just taking the class one hour a day, five days a week. It's about playing at concerts, evolving more as a musician, making friends, and learning how to express yourself through music. Sure, like any other class, there is stress involved. Whether it's studying for playing quizzes, rehearsing your ISSMA solo or ensemble, there's always something that orchestra students have to be prepared for. But beyond all the work related things there are other activities that orchestra students get to experience that make it all worth it such as the annual trip to Indiana Beach, the year end banquet, and making an orchestra float for the Homecoming parade. But what makes orchestra truly different from any other class is the family-like atmosphere that has manifested because of everyone's love and desire to play an instrument and have a little fun at the same time.

Recording History

A yearbook is many things to many people, but first and foremost, it is a publication that is designed to record the history of a particular school year and the people who were a part of it. The 2011 yearbook staff took this responsibility very seriously in its attempt to capture the essence of what it was like to be a student at Highland High School.

The students on staff worked extremely hard to make the yearbook the best it could be, and the hope is that the students at Highland will appreciate their efforts, and that the Highland community will have a publication to cherish for years to come.

Spring Musical

This year's Highland Theater Company's Spring Musical production was "Once Upon A Mattress." The musical is an adaptation of the Brothers Grimm story of "A Princess and the Pea." However, in this show, the roles of a princess and prince are reversed. The princess acts like the man and the prince acts like the maiden. This play was very different from last year's production. It was an amazing show that featured a lot of talent and required a lot of hard work, and, in the end, garnered a lot of applause from the audience.

FOOT ball

The needle for the Highland varsity football team would appear to be pointing upward even though the team's 1-9 overall record might suggest little change from previous years.

There is a different, more positive approach with the program, and, in time, there is a sense that more victories are on the horizon.

Highland's players gave it their best effort each game, and they worked hard in practice since the middle of the Summer. The season ended, but the team's determination never wavered.

In order to achieve great success in cross country it requires that a team possesses several quality runners and a degree of depth.

Fortunately, the girls' team had a strong runner in Nicole O'Malley and several other talented individuals to carry them to great heights this season. In fact, the Trojans advanced to the semistate meet and placed 17th overall.

As for the boys, state-qualifier Jake Baranowski was one of the area's premiere runners. He was supported by Zach Glick and several other teammates, but the team had some difficulties overcoming injuries.

However, both teams had very good turnouts and next year's group of runners appear to be very promising.

As the saying goes, "there's a first time for everything." The Highland varsity girls' soccer team lived up to that old adage this season. With Coach Gordon Walker leading a veteran team, the Trojans overcame their yearly road block in Lake Central not once, but twice. The first victory over LC came during the regular season and it marked the first time Highland had defeated the Indians. But the best was yet to come in the tournament.

After knocking off conference champion Munster for the sectional title, the Trojans would meet LC again, but for the regional crown, and in a thrilling contest, Highland downed LC, 1-0, for its first-ever regional championship.

The season ended, though, with a loss to South Bend St. Joseph's, 3-1, at the semistate, but Highland's players have lots of reasons to be proud.

Soccer is a game of agility, endurance, and adrenaline. The Highland varsity boys' team showed that this year by finishing with a 9-6-1 record.

It certainly was a good season; however, many would agree that it could have been even better if Highland had found a way to overcome rival Munster. The Trojans lost a hard-fought, 2-1 game to the Mustangs during the season and then again, 1-0, in the opening round of the Sectional.

Nevertheless, there were still many victories and inspiring moments to make the season memorable.

How a team ends their season is often a good indication of the team's mood and attitude as it enters tournament action. Such is the unfortunate case with the Highland varsity volleyball team. The Trojans closed out their regular season by losing eight of their last eleven matches. Then, the season was halted in the opening round of the sectional, a loss to Lake Central.

Highland showed up with motivation, hoping to win. Its young players will improve, no doubt, and future seasons will look even brighter.

The Highland varsity boys' tennis team had something to prove this year. With five returning varsity players, the Trojans were set to have a big season.

Unfortunately, the season didn't turn out exactly how the team wanted, losing close matches to Chesterton, Lake Central, and Lafayette Jeff. Nevertheless, the Trojans still won their 7th straight sectional title and Coach Baez collected his 100th career win.

Next season the Trojans are counting on some young talent to step up because they will be losing five out of the seven varsity players.

It often happens that the way in which a team plays at the end of the season helps to determine how well it will play in the tournament. As for the Highland varsity girls' basketball team, season-long injuries and illness to various players during the course of the year took their toll and left the Lady Trojans (8-12) limping to just two wins in their last seven games. Inevitably, Highland was eliminated by Lowell, 64-50, in the first round of the sectional.

Despite the setbacks, the players on the team showed a lot of enthusiasm and played with plenty of pride.

MOVING UPWARD

The Highland varsity boys' basketball team steadily improved throughout the season. The Trojans finished with a 10-12 record for their best season in several years. In fact, in each of the last five years, the team has moved it up another notch with more victories.

The season ended, though, in the first-round of the sectional, a 63-51 loss to Hammond Morton after Highland had beaten Morton by 16 points during the regular season. Undoubtedly, the disheartening loss will provide even more motivation for next year's returning players.

CHEERLEADING

RISE TO THE TOP

With a new coach and things finally settled into their place, the Highland cheerleaders showed a very competitive spirit. Attending all of the football games, and most of the boys' and girls' basketball games, the squad had an extremely busy season with very little free time. A lot of hard work and practice was required for preparation at a competition in October. Proving they could handle the pressure, the girls had a successful performance.

"Competition practices were tough, but the season got better near the end," junior Kristina Anderson said.

There is a saying which insists "wrestling is ballet with violence." The Highland wrestlers, like in every season, went through an especially grueling training regiment. The team had a successful season and the squad appears to be loaded with lots of young, talented newcomers. Additionally, because of the guidance of first-year coach Mr. Mike Escobedo and the veteran leadership of seniors Danny Rodriguez (34-4) and state-qualifier Eric Johnson (36-2), Highland's future looks very promising.

MAKING IT HAPPEN

The Highland boys' swimming and diving team did very well this season. The team finished 10-2 in dual meet competitions, losing only to perennial powers Munster and Lake Central.

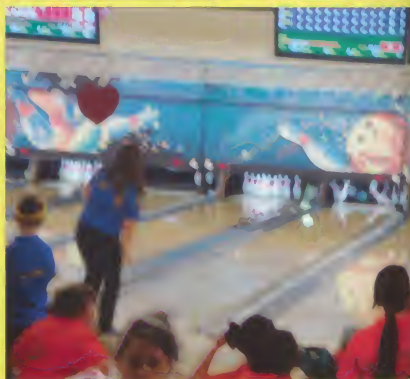

The team's success also carried over into the bigger meets in which Highland finished second at the Munster Relays, fourth at the conference meet, and fifth at the sectional.

Many of the athletes evidently shared a close bond, too, shaving their heads near the end of season as a symbol of their friendship.

Redemption

To all of those naysayers who were convinced that the Highland girls' track team was not going to do well this year, well, they were wrong. Over the last two seasons the team has improved and it showed especially this year. The girls placed second in the conference meet, primarily because of some spectacular performances from senior Katherine Smailis in the hurdle events and senior Alexis Jordan in the discus.

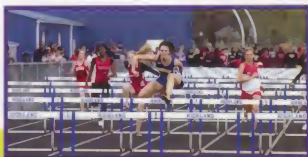

Highland also placed third at the sectional to reach the regional meet. It was a season of individual accomplishment and team success, and the future looks very promising.

Sprinting Ahead

Senior Nigel Palmer is real fast. In fact, his speed in the 100-meter dash was so good (11.14) that it carried him all the way to the state meet at Indiana University in Bloomington. At the state meet, Palmer -- Highland's lone state representative -- finished 26th in a time of 11.50. Additionally, he placed third at the Valparaiso Regional to help the Highland boys' track and field team.

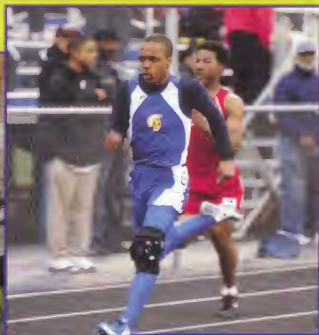

Some other top individual performances at the regional for Highland were sophomore distance runners Marc Foss and Zach Glick, who placed 8th and 9th, respectively, in 1600-meter run. Glick, also competing in the 3200-meter run, finished 11th. Meanwhile, Matt Orsag in the 800 meters, and Richard Syvertsen in the high jump were also stars.

Highland's future in boys' track and field appears to be very bright with several of the athletes who did so well returning next season. The team will also include several others who will likely emerge to make Highland even stronger.

Growing Pains

Many would categorize the Highland varsity softball season as a transitional year with the addition of first-year coach Erin Zeller. The Trojans also featured two freshman pitchers in Lauren Bultema and Brittany Fowler.

Still, Highland managed a 9-16 record and defeated Andean during the regular season for the first time in school history. With the kind of inexperience that the team included, many feared that the year would be rather, well, scary. Instead,

Highland's talented, young players gained plenty of valuable experience that they will certainly be able to take advantage of next year.

It's a Long Way to the Top

The Highland varsity baseball team was one of the real powerhouses in the area this season, amassing a 22-7 record. Along the way, too, Coach Dan Miller earned his 600th career coaching victory after 32 years at the helm.

The season, like many baseball seasons in the past, was filled with high expectations and it appeared like the Trojans were destined for great things. Unfortunately, the team was eliminated in the championship game of the sectional, a 2-0 setback against Lake Central. However, the season was filled with many great moments, including a nine-game win streak that included wins over Andrean, Munster, and Griffith.

So it would seem that the future is very promising. Highland will continue to be deep in pitching and in several key positions next year and another tourney run will certainly be on the horizon.

Reaching Great Heights

The Highland varsity girls' tennis team was coming off their best season ever, finishing with a 24-1 record which included a trip to the state quarterfinals. But in order to reach those great heights again, the Trojans had to undergo massive changes to their lineup. The changes, orchestrated by Coach Adam Baez, came after a tough 3-2 loss to Munster midway through the season. The moves worked and Highland (18-3) avenged its loss to Munster in the regional and then defeated Crown Point for the title. The season, unfortunately, ended with a loss to South Bend St. Joseph's, 4-1, in the semistate.

The team, though, is still loaded with several supremely talented and dedicated players, and another promising year is on the horizon.

Avoiding obstacles

The Highland varsity boys' golf team was optimistic about the approaching season. But when the Winter weather continued into the Spring months, the team's ability to practice and play matches took a turn for the worse. A small turnout of golfers also limited Highland's options in matches. But through it all, the small group of Highland golfers gained valuable experience and nurturing that is needed with any team and should prove valuable in upcoming seasons. The season concluded with a 5th-place showing at the Lake Central Sectional, with Seth Peters and Nick Canham each carding an 89 to advance as individuals to the regional.

HIGHLAND HIGH SCHOOL

Volume 52, Shield "Stuck in '11" was designed by Editor Lauren Pleasant, who also worked with Division Editor/Business Editor Yolanda Agosto to design the division sections in the 2011 yearbook. The business and senior advertisements were designed by Agosto. Additionally, Pleasant designed the Senior section in the yearbook as well as the theme development and concept for the cover.

For the eighth consecutive year, the Shield was an entirely full color yearbook that utilized a variety of blended colors and the most innovative layout designs and typography. Spread templates were designed using the on-line program eDesign that was provided by the yearbook printer Herff Jones. All of the photographs in the yearbook were taken by yearbook staff members, the school photographer Prestige Portraits/Lifetouch, or by special contributors. The layouts were then completed by the students on staff in the journalism computer lab. Ultimately, the completed layouts, according to deadlines, were then submitted on-line to the plant for printing.

Mrs. Julie Glenn was the Shield's representative from Herff Jones, P.O. Box 10, 6015 Travis Lane, Mission, KS 66201.

Dear Seniors,

When we were in kindergarten, we learned our ABC's, and for the rest of our years, we did everything according to the rules. When we were assigned seats in class, it always went A through Z, and we never questioned the reasons why it was always this way. When teachers called roll, they naturally always started with the A's, and finished with the Z's. Even at our long-awaited graduation, our beloved A's were the first to walk across the stage to accept their diplomas before the B's and C's and so on. But have we ever thought that it should be different? Previously, all of the Classes in every yearbook list the photos of students in A-B-C order. But for a change, this year's Senior Class will be different, beginning with the Z's and ending with A's. Maybe now the "Z"s will know what it feels like to go first, to be in the front of the pack. Meanwhile, those names which are at the beginning of the alphabet will get a sense of what it feels like to wait and have patience. So here you go Z's and W's! Here is your turn to lead the pack in our Senior section! Congratulations Class of 2011!

Bianca,

I am proud of you, granddaughter. Get a vision, see it, make a plan and do it, trust in god and he will order your steps to succeed. Love You Always, Grandma Vickie

Bianca,

Congrats on graduating!! I'm so proud of you. I know you'll do great things and continue to make me proud.
Love, Dad

Bei,

Even though your mom isn't here we know she's as proud of you as we are. Congratulations.
Love, Grandpa, Grandma & Kenille

Bianca,

The bond between a mother and daughter cannot be broken, forgot or replaced. It is the strongest bond and lasts throughout eternity. Even though your mom has passed away, she is with you always. She is your guardian angel who watches over you and protects you, who is always there for you when you need her and who will be gleaming with pride as she watches her baby girl walk across the stage at graduation. No one can imagine how hard it has been for you to lose your mom at such a young age, but you have dealt with it gracefully with her help from above. Continue to make her proud as you pursue your dreams. She lives on through you.
Loves Always & Forever,
All who love & care for you

Bei (Bianca),

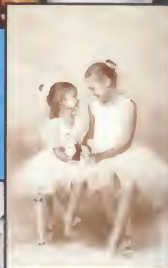

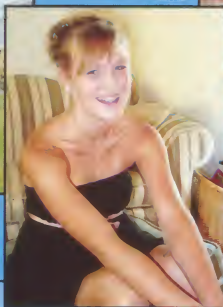

Congratulations! I'm so happy and excited for you to start the next chapter in your life. I know you will continue to flourish as you move forward. Remember to always have faith in yourself and in your future. I wish you nothing but the best as you start college and start pursuing your dreams. Never settle for less than what you deserve, which is the best of the best. I'm happy that I could be a part of your life and I'm here to offer my friendship, guidance, love, and support.

Love Always,

Jessica L. Randolph, Esq.

PHILLIP CULBERTSON

WOW! We can't believe that 12 years of school has come and gone. Your father and I remember the first day of school and you getting on the bus. We remember the day you came into the living room with just your diaper and sang, "I am too sexy for my diapee." You were just over two years old; we both looked at each other and said you were going to grow up and be a politician or an actor. We remember seeing you in all of your plays, from the comedic to the dramatic. Seeing you as a persecuted Jew and believing the role made us proud of the accomplished actor you have become. You have accomplished so much in your 12 years of school. We can't wait to see what great accomplishments you will make in the next 12 years.

You have been a great son and brother, and we see you doing great things with your life. Keep up your love of reading and remember that God has His hand on you.

God and family will always be here for you. Keep dreaming and reaching for the stars.

CYBER-BULLYING

Bullying didn't always happen at school or even in person. Some of the most vicious attacks happened over the Internet on social networking sites or via e-mail messages. Many worried that Internet bullying was becoming more prominent because of the relative anonymity afforded by phantom screen names.

NEW HOMEOWNERS REJOICE

A REAL ISSUE:

Though bullies had been feared in schools and neighborhoods for centuries, the increasing statistics of peer teasing and torture have raised concern in recent years.

In the past, bullies used verbal or physical abuse that have been used cartoon forms of bullying. Another form of bullying, cyber bullying, became more powerful as a result of cyber bullying, where a victim's reputation may have been destroyed via e-mail, blogs, instant messaging or text messages.

After what seemed to be an increase in teen and tween suicides due to bullying, many schools, communities and other organizations moved to provide programs and information for affected students and their parents/teachers.

BULLYING

ITGETSBETTER.ORG

The organization, founded in 2000, was created to help teens and young adults. It was started in 2000 by author Dan Savage. Among the committee members and founders were author Dan Savage, President Barack Obama and Secretary of State Hillary Clinton.

NATIONAL SUICIDE PREVENTION LIFELINE

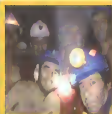

By calling 1-800-273-TALK, anyone feeling the extreme effects of bullying could get the support they might need from trained volunteers who were ready to help.

CARTOON NETWORK'S 'STOP BULLYING, SPEAK UP' CAMPAIGN

Cartoon Network's 'Stop Bullying, Speak Up' campaign was launched by the network's bullying. They launched their own campaign to encourage kids to stand up and to help others who were bullied.

THE TREVOR PROJECT AND LIFELINE

The Trevor Project was founded to help suicide among young people by providing life-saving and life-affirming resources including a nationwide, 24/7 crisis hotline (1-800-4-U-TREVOR), digital community and advocacy programs that created a safe, supportive and positive environment for everyone.

VIDEO PROOF

After the rescue, some miners were filmed waving a torch of light to the heavens as a sign of hope and triumph. They could hardly be kept with their families.

BOUNCING BACK

Arizona congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords made record strides in her recovery after a gunshot wound to the head during a Tucson shooting in January that killed six others. Giffords was critically injured, but surpassed expectations in the months following the shooting.

JOINING FORCES

When Britain's 2010 election ended in a hung Parliament, the two winning rival Prime Minister candidates (David Cameron, a Conservative, and Nick Clegg, a Liberal Democrat) agreed to join forces and form a coalition government, the U.K.'s first in more than 30 years.

FLAWLESS RESCUE

Televised efforts allowed the world to look on as Chilean miners trapped underground for nearly 10 weeks by a mining accident returned to safety in October. It took just 22 hours and 37 minutes for all 33 miners to travel nearly half a mile to the surface.

EGYPTIAN OVERTHROW

President Hosni Mubarak's 30-year reign came to an end in February when huge crowds demonstrated against his rule, forcing him to flee the country.

Faisal Shahzad, a 30-year-old Pakistani-born U.S. citizen, was arrested as he tried to leave the country and later pleaded guilty to the attempt.

SNOW MOUNTAIN

In a matter of a couple of days in January, hundreds of birds and fish died mysteriously in several states. UPPER AMERICA: TRAGEDY A devastating April 2010 explosion killed 29 miners and injured others; the mining company had a history of safety and environmental infractions. NEANDERTHAL DAD German scientists partially reconstructed the Neanderthal genome and proved the survival of the genome in modern humans.

OLD TREN

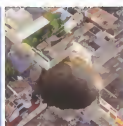

Nearly 100 tons of dead fish, mostly sardines, washed up on a Brazilian beach and reports of other mass deaths came from Italy and France.

While theories about the mass deaths included everything from cold straws and fireworks to hail, many scientists suggested that the various occurrences were merely coincidental.

NATURE

THE 'HOLE' STORY

A massive sinkhole in Guatemala City opened up and swallowed a 3-story building after Tropical Storm Agatha flooded the area with more than three feet of rain in May and June.

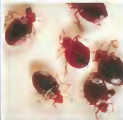

UNRELENTING RAIN

Nashville suffered its worst flood in more than 80 years after storms dumped more than 13 inches of rain on the region in two days. Buildings were flooded and more than 30 died.

LA NIÑA MONSOONS

Nearly 2,000 were killed and an estimated one quarter of the land in Pakistan was flooded in July. Miles of highway and railways and acres of farmland were ruined.

The third space shuttle flight of 2011 — and NASA's very last shuttle flight ever — was scheduled for Atlantis on June 28, 2011.

MINING MATTERS

In recent years, 51 coal miners in West Virginia have contributed 30,000 direct jobs to the state's economy, and its status as the nation's largest underground coal source.

/OIL SPILL IN THE GULF

BRITISH PETROLEUM

CEO Tony Hayward testified before the House Energy and Commerce Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee. Hayward resigned from his post on July 27, 2010.

205 MILLION GALLONS

The amount of crude oil that spilled into the Gulf of Mexico made this the world's largest accidental oil spill in history. After five months, the well was declared effectively dead.

THE PEOPLE SPEAK

BP station boycotts and anti-BP social media groups as well as traditional protests, like this one in Vienna, Austria, allowed people to make their feelings about the oil spill known.

BOUND TO HAPPEN

The follow-up report by the National Commission on the BP Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill and Offshore Drilling said 'systemic' problems caused the blowout/oil spill and only 'significant reform' could prevent future spills.

THE STATS

BP oil rig Deepwater Horizon exploded in the Gulf of Mexico, killing 11 men and injuring 17 workers. In late April, BP estimated the resulting leak at about 5,000 barrels (210,000 gallons) a day.

In June, the government produced other figures, estimating that 30,000 to 65,000 barrels (as much as 2.7 million gallons) of crude was pumping into the gulf each day.

The President addressed the nation after traveling to the gulf to survey the damage made to the Louisiana coastline.

For months, controlled burns were conducted at sea to help prevent any further spreading of the oil to the shoreline. Coastline in four states was affected.

BP projected that it had already spent $4 billion on clean-up efforts by June. The budget tallied $20 billion over three years.

The nation was able to survey the oil escaping from the leak site via BP's live video feed, assuring the public that the leak would be taken care of.

HOW TO PROPERLY WASH OIL COVERED BIRDS

STEP 1

Gently flush eyes with warm saline solution. Swab oil from nostrils and bill. Remove any oil from stomach with tube.

STEP 2

Wash oil from body and wings with a dishwashing solution. Make sure to wipe the feathers in the direction they are growing.

STEP 3

Repeat 3-4 times until oil is completely washed away, then gently towel dry bird. Bird will be ready for release in 2-4 days.

Oil contamination is often deadly for birds if they are not properly washed and cared for. Oil soaks into water resistant feathers, making them vulnerable to temperature change. Dry feathers also make it impossible for birds to fly and can even drag them underwater to drown. The oil can also cause internal harm when birds try to preen the oil from their feathers. It can cause kidney liver and reproductive damage among other things.

Scientists and other volunteers worked on all kinds of wildlife affected by the spill. The processes for cleaning birds, turtles and dolphins varied, as did survivors' chances for recovery. Thousands of birds, sea turtles and dolphins perished.

In addition to the casualties and the damage to wildlife, there are numerous other lasting effects. Human health issues included increased risk of cancer and other ailments, as well as escalated stress. Two of the region's other major industries (tourism and seafood) were shut down temporarily and suffered lasting losses. Louisiana traditionally contributed a third of the nation's shrimp, oysters, crab and crawfish, and, despite massive marketing campaigns, hotels and resorts on the Gulf shore suffered decreased occupancy throughout the summer.

By June, 558,000 barrels of oil had been collected from the water's surface and nearly 1,240 miles worth of booms had been set up to prevent oil from reaching the shoreline.

Before four wildlife rehabilitation centers were established in response to the oil spill, 36 national wildlife sanctuaries were threatened.

Mexico, Norway, Canada and the Netherlands all donated equipment (such as the water-skimming system on the right) to aid in the clean-up efforts.

It was estimated that more than 125 miles of Louisiana shoreline was contaminated with the washed up crude oil.

Discoverer Enterprise, a deepwater drilling vessel, aided in recovering the spilled oil gushing from the leak site after a cap was placed in June.

After nearly three months, the leak was finally capped, but not before the effects of the spill could be seen in photos that were taken from space.

/THE MAKING OF

TIGERS EDGE DUCKS

The top-ranked Auburn Tigers defeated the No. 2 Oregon Ducks 22-19 in the BCS Championship game in Glendale, AZ as the 2010-11 season wrapped up. Auburn quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton threw for 256 yards and rushed for another 64, accounting for two touchdowns. Freshman running back Michael Dyer was named MVP. Senior Wes Byrum kicked his sixth career game-winning field goal on the last play of the game to save the Tigers' perfect season. This was the fifth consecutive national championship for the SEC.

FAST AND FURIOUS X 5

Jimmie Johnson came in second to Carl Edwards at the Ford 400 at Homestead-Miami, but that was enough to vault him over Denny Hamlin in the points race to win his fifth consecutive NASCAR Sprint Cup Championship. Hamlin's car was damaged early in the race and never challenged for the lead. Only Richard Petty and Dale Earnhardt, with seven championships each, had more titles than Johnson. Between 2002 (when he joined Hendrick Motorsports) and 2010, Johnson recorded 53 wins, 203 top-ten finishes and 25 pole positions.

DUKE DOES IT AGAIN

The Duke Blue Devils captured the NCAA men's basketball championship for a fourth time with a 61-59 win over Butler in Indianapolis, IN. Duke's Final Four title, their first since 2001, snapped Butler's 25-game win streak. FREE FALLIN' Canadian freestyle skier Kaya Turski, in her first run since ACL surgery in April, claimed gold in the 2011 Winter X Slopestyle, repeating her win from last year. Turski also took silver in the 2011 Freestyle World Championships. THREE

OUT OF FOUR Tennis star Rafael Nadal won the French Open, Wimbledon and the U.S. Open, bringing his total of Grand Slam victories to nine. Roger Federer won the Australian Open.

RATINGS SOAR

An estimated 715 million viewers—approximately one in 10 people alive at the time—watched the final match of the 2010 World Cup.

FACEOFF

Watson, an IBM supercomputer, battled two past Jeopardy! champions, winning handily. The $77,147 in prize money was donated to charity.

THE CREAM RISES

Paula Creamer held off competitors Suzann Pettersen and Na Yeon Choi to secure victory at the 65th Women's U.S. Open. This was her first major tournament win.

WAVES OF GRIEF

Andy Irons, three-time world surfing champion, died at age 32. He had 20 World Tour victories and four Triple Crown of Surfing titles.

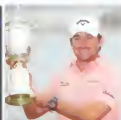

SNOWED UNDER

The inflatable Teflon roof of Minnesota's Metrodome collapsed under more than 17" of snow, delaying and moving the Vikings vs. Giants game.

A NYC LEGEND

George Steinbrenner, owner of the New York Yankees for more than 37 years, died at age 80. Steinbrenner's Yankees won seven World Series and 11 pennants.

CHAMPIONS

U.S. OPEN CHAMP

For the first time in 40 years, a European brought home the cup when Northern Ireland's Graeme McDowell won at Pebble Beach in 2010.

VUVUZA WHAT?

The distinctive sound of vuvuzelas, plastic horns long associated with soccer in South Africa, gained international exposure during 2010 World Cup play.

MUSIC EVERYWHERE

Sonos Home Music System allowed listeners to hear their favorite music in multiple rooms with a remote and any computer. Similar systems were also created for iPads and other devices.

BIG BAGS

From the runways at Fashion Week to malls and campus hallways and classrooms, the popularity of the hobo bag and other oversized purses was apparent.

SMARTPHONES

It seemed that nearly everyone had become increasingly dependent on their smartphones, totting an iPhone, Droid or Blackberry wherever they went.

SKINNY JEANS

Hipsters all over the U.S. and Europe started the revival of popularity in these taut denim pants, but the style had become mainstream in recent years.

RAY-BAN REVIVAL

When these '90s mainstays first made their comeback, vintage stores and eBay were practical sources, but demand encouraged renewed production.

JEGGINGS

When designers crossed leggings with jeans, they got comfy jeggings. Even Conan O'Brien donned a pair on screen in support of this trendy style.

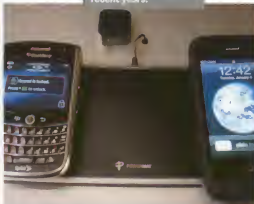

BOOTS GALORE

From flats to spicy heels and everywhere in between, boots seemed to command fashion attention as they completed outfits of many styles.

ANOTHER DIMENSION Sales of another new tech fad, 3-D television, nearly doubled in 2011 from when the technology was first introduced just a year earlier.

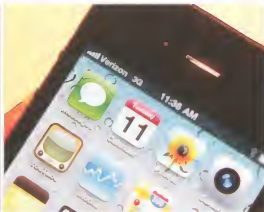

With an estimated four million 3-D sets sold in 2011, industry consultants suggested that figure could double again by 2012 as manufacturers hope to tap into the 3-D gaming market.

INVISIBLE CURRENTS The technology of inductive charging or wireless charging of any device with a lithium battery made its way into homes and offices when users became able to lay their mobile devices on a "power mat" and charge them without any wires or adaptors.

IPHONE ENVY

After five years of the iPhone only being available on AT&T's network, Verizon revealed that they'd become a carrier for the most popular smartphone on the market in February 2011. Verizon announced its most successful first-day sales in company history selling 2.9 million iPhones in a two-hour span to existing customers. While new customers were required to wait a week to purchase Verizon's iPhone, sales data was not immediately available, partially because of high online sales.

TV/BROWSER OR BOTH?

A relatively new technology, Google TV was an internet-connected TV platform that allowed users to stream videos, movies and music and access other information downloadable from the Internet on larger screens. Introduced at a May 2010 web developers' conference, Google TV was directly incorporated into some newer high-definition televisions and Blu-ray players. In addition, some users acquired a set-top box containing the Android-based system and necessary accessories in order to have split-screen access to surf the web on the TV while still watching other programming.
